

Reminders for home

reading

- It should always be fun and achievable.
- Build confidence in their ability and praise their efforts
- Let the child hold and control the book.
- Talk about the stories before and after reading.
- DO NOT correct your child's errors immediately; give them a chance to use the strategies they are learning at school.
- Ask questions about the book.
- Read to your child, always and often.
- Be patient
- Make reading fun!!!

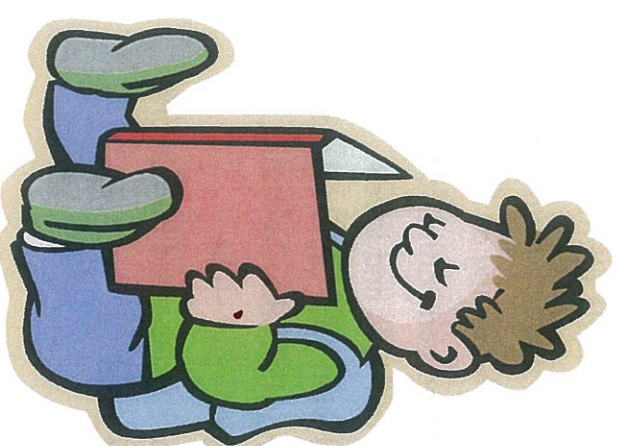

Home Readers have been read and reread at school and should be easy for your child to read at home.

Buckland School Reading Informatio

Brochure

Helpful tips and advice to suppo
your child's reading at home

Reading at Home

- Do lots of talking about what the book may be about by looking at the pictures, predicting, what happens next, and retelling the story.
- Do ask questions like...what can you tell about the story from the pictures? What do you think might happen?
- Do discuss the pictures, encourage your child to build up the story before looking at the words.
- Do praise your child for their contributions and ideas.
- Read with your child (either taking turns or together).
- Read to your child.
- Always make reading fun and successful.

When I read at home....

- I can look at the picture.
- I can think about what makes sense.
- I can read the sentence again.
- I can get my mouth ready for the first sound.

5 tips to remember

- Look at the picture.
- Look at the starting letter.
- Think what will make sense.
- Have a go
- Reread

