28 April 2015

Dear Parents and Community Members
Tena Koutou

- ◆ I hope you all had an enjoyable long weekend.
- ◆ Welcome to Coen our new student in Room 1.
- ◆ Olympic Value for this term: Respect for Self and Others.
- ◆ Speeches—Years 4—8 children are working hard on writing and preparing their speeches. These will be given to classes next week. Children will be selected from classes for the syndicate speech competition to be held in the Buckland Hall on 15 May. This begins at 9.30a.m.
- ◆ Naming for School Uniform—please ensure that your children's names can still be read on their uniform items. We were unable to give back numerous sweatshirts, and other uniform items at the end of the term because we could not read names.
- ◆ Camp Dates—Prior Notice: Yr 7/8—Wellington—17—21 August. Yr 6—Peter Snell, Whangaparaoa—19—23 October. Yr 4 & 5—Chosen Valley, Ararimu—11—13 November.
- ◆ School Bells: A start of school bell is rung at 8.55 a.m. Children should arrive prior to this so that they have time to get organised for the day. Late arrivals disrupt the class and unsettle children.
- ◆ Newsletter slips—Don't forget to sign these and send along to school with children for the assembly draw each fortnight.

Senior Syndicate Production

This term the Senior Syndicate is focussing on The Arts Curriculum and producing the pantomime, 'Aladdin Trouble'. The show will be in the Buckland Hall, with two evening performances (Wednesday 1 July and Thursday 2 July) and a dress rehearsal/matinee on Tuesday 30 June.

We would love to have some parents to help with costumes, scenery, sound and lighting, and erecting and packing down the staging.

Thank you to those who have already offered to help, but there's room for more helpers. If you can help. Please let Mrs Fletcher or Mrs Machin know.

There will be a meeting for helpers on Wednesday 6 May at 3.15 pm in Room 7.

ANZAC DAY POEM By Chelsey Room 10

I didn't like it when my daddy went to war but my mum sent him off with pride.
One night some strange men with uniforms on turned up at our door step. My mum fell to her knees and started crying.
"He will not return" they said with a lot of pride.
I rang to my room with his medal in my hand.
"I just don't understand" I said.
I just don't understand.

R.I.P.

All ANZACS who gave their lives for us
